PARIS, 25th June. The Court of Assizes of Aix-les-Bain has just had before it one of the most extraordinary. cuses which can be found in the annals of crime. The accused was a boy 16 years of age numed Francois Berthollier, who was charged with the murder of a man named Blanchard. Borthollier did not deny the crime, but made the curious defence) that he had killed his victim not only with the latter's consent, but in reextract from his examination by the President of the Court gives his version of the crime. Prisoner-On the day of the arrival of the Russians, Blanchard and I went to Toulon. On the way he told me how miserable he was, and how much he desired to end his life.
